

User Documentation

How to Play:

When the game first starts up you must first either sign in or register a new account

Once that has been done you will get a main menu screen, which consists of 4 buttons

- Play
 - You would click this button to start a game with anyone else who is logged in.
- Leaderboard
 - This will show you who has the top 5 leaders on the server.
- Chat
 - This will allow you to chat with anyone that is logged to the game currently
- Help
 - A simple window that explains how the game works and provides general help for new users

Known Bugs

- Users can only chat with people outside of a game and not while it is running
